Mr Blue René Klijn

Wintersongs are crying, like the old man's slowly dying,
and the only sound the wind that fills the trees.
Even colder comes the moon, and all that never seems too soon, sudden stillnes as the rainfall starts to freeze.

I'm Mister Blue
I'm here to stay with you
and no matter what you do
when you're lonely, I'll be lonely too
Oh, Mister Blue
I'm here to stay with you
and no matter what you do
when you're lonely, I'll be lonely too

A young girl, she's shaded, bears the scars that's never faded,
of a baby that was born on Christmas day.
While the heaven sing their song, the child's life was never long,
'cause the food supplies will only last a day.

I'm Mister Blue
and no matter what you do
when you're lonely, I'll be lonely too
Oh, Mister Blue
and no matter what you do
when you're lonely, I'll be lonely too

Patriot inmotion,
Is the cause of the commotion, after all is really no one here to blame.

Soldiers taking orders, cause they must defend the borders of our nation, and the other side's the same.

I'm Mister Blue
and no matter what you do
when you're lonely, I'll be lonely too
Oh, Mister Blue
and no matter what you do
when you're lonely, I'll be lonely too

I come to you at night, when all the world is sleeping tight,
and lie beside you,
till the early morning due.
You can't hear me, you can't see me, you can feel me when you read the folded letter she left addressed to you.

I'm Mister Blue
and no matter what you do
when you're lonely, I'll be lonely too
Oh, Mister Blue
and no matter what you do
when you're lonely, I'll be lonely too
I'm lonely too
